Camryn Volz
Head Coach – Women’s Basketball
Northern Kentucky University

Coach Volz:

The University has received allegations regarding your behavior that, if substantiated, may constitute a violation of University policies and/or the terms of your employment contract.

As of today, the University is placing you on temporary paid leave pending outcome of an investigation into those allegations. During this process, the University will share the information it has gathered with you, in writing, and will give you the opportunity to respond.

During the leave period, you must not contact any members of the women’s basketball team or members of your staff, and you must not enter campus or any campus buildings without prior permission from Christina Roybal.

Please contact Christina Roybal or Lori Southwood with any questions or concerns during this process.

Sincerely,
